“ Al and I were traveling with another couple in North Carolina and saw that we were close to Sunset Beach. We found her place, knocked on the door and said we were friends of Larry and Connie. Her first comment was she didn't know Larry had any friends. She welcomed four strangers into her home and we visited like old friends. She was so gracious and fun to talk with-what a great lady. “ I first met Frances when I went to North Carolina to visit. I fell in love with both Frances and Ace. In our visit we decided to go to Charleston and spent the night. Coming out of the room the next morning Ace & Frances was in front of Cindy & I and Frances says to me "hey you hussy" We laughed and the name has stuck ever since. We went to see her the day she passed away and she called me hussy as soon as I walked in the door.

We has such a wonderful day with you that day Frances and I will never forget it.

Rest in Peace Frances you will be missed by all especially the "HUSSY". Love to all of her family
