“ I worked with Gary for many years and played golf with him even longer. He was a wonderful, hard working man. Also, a real pistol on the course. I could always find him by listening for him yelling " OH GARY!" when he hit a poor shot. I hope all of his drives are straight and long and all of his putts go in.

When ever I play, I will think of him and all of my golf friends that have passed away.

God Bless You!

“ To Gary Barker's family:

It will never be the same to go to a rockets game; especially since you could call the plays before they happened. Thank You for all the Memories.
