“ My mother and I have know Jerry for 45 years, we watched him raise his kids, he was a hard worker and a buddy I could really relate to. He was very proud of his children Kurt and Kevin. Jerry was an asset to Wolferts Market which we lived behind. He was a benefit to the community. We had a blast snowmobiling together for a week in Yellowstone Park and enjoying or love of classics cars. I sure will miss him and I am a better person for knowing him.

*Sincerely,
