“ I was quite shocked to learn of "Hildy"'s passing.

Although we grew up on the same street & went to the same grade school, we never associated much due to the difference in our ages.

I always thought highly of her & her family; my sympathies to all. I know she will be very much missed.

God Bless,

She was the best mom and she was also my best friend. Life will be very different without her and there is so much that she will miss. “ On behalf of myself and my family I would like to thank everyone for your thoughts, prayers, condolences and memories. It is overwhelming to see how many people she touched. Keep up a good spirit when thinking of her because as you all know that is what she always tried to give, that ray of sunshine and smile on a face, entertaining as always. She was so much to so many and everything to me but, as saddened as I am with the loss of Hilde I will fight everyday to display the happiness she gave to me and not dwell on the sadness of her passing. That's how she wanted it to be. I also hope that everyone would do the same; this is the best way to keep her alive in our hearts. I love you Hildegard, your loving husband Kent.##imported-begin##Kent kstamb56@gmail.com##imported-end##
