“ I have known Howard through the MCCR. My husband and father got their hair cuts at his barbershop, so he was well known in our family. Howard and I served, along with five others, as leaders of Our Lady's Prayer Group at OLPH. I would see Howard at St. Pat's daily Mass. It didn't matter how horrible the weather was ... Howard was there in deep prayer. He carried many crosses, but he never complained. He has a place in heaven at the banquet table for sure. He was a great example of what true discipleship is. "Well done, good and faithful servant" is so very true. Rest in peace.

“ "Well done, good and faithful servant!" Howard was a steadfast member of our Emmaus Catholic Charismatic Prayer Group at the MCCR Chapel at St. Jerome campus. His praise, prayer and friendship will be greatly missed. Howard had a passion for spreading God's kingdom by evangelizing - he distributed for free many audio CDs of various Catholic teachings at our MCCR conferences and gatherings. He participated on prayer teams for our Night of Healing events. I am sure he will continue his prayers in heaven for all his family, friends and the ministries that were close to his heart.

“

My condolences to Howard's family. Howard was one of the "big kids" when my family moved into 521 Toronto St. in Toledo when I was in 2nd grade. That would have been around 1947 or 48. The Bellners lived 3 houses down. May God grant you comfort at this difficult time.

“

When I taught at St Charles and when I was principal Howard cut my hair. What a kind and good man! May he rest in peace.

Howard was a steadfast presence at Sunday morning rosary, St. Charles choir, Bible Study, and RCIA. We also shared a profession-cutting hair. I will remember his gentle smile and his love for God which he shared humbly and enthusiastically.
