“ Paul,

As your funeral day approaches, I am getting so shaky and emotional of your passing. You were so much a part of my life for 33 years and I am so thankful for the friendship we had. It is hard to imagine my life without you. So many times I would come to you for your opinion or advice. You were so smart. I always thought of you as my guardian angel. You were there for me emotionally when I had no one else and you helped me to get through so many tough times in my life. My son (Brad) was only 3 years old when we became friends and he is now 36 years old. How time flies. Losing you has left a huge void in my life. You will be so truly missed and I thank God for that short time we had together at hospice. Paul, do you remember I said to you “Its Sandy” “I love you Paul and I am here for you” At that time your eyes seemed to open just a bit and you seemed to close you fingers around mine, very loosely. You and I had a very special bond that can never be broken. We have always loved each other and it grieves me that I cannot be at your funeral. Of all people, I should be there. I can not tell you how hard that is for me. I pray that you rest in peace.

Your very best friend, Sandy

Thank you Chris for your compassion. Your Dad and I will be forever grateful to you. What a wonderful daughter you have been. God loves you and your Dad and I do also. Thank you for your friendship.
