“ My deepest sympathies to Ida's family. However, I did not know her personally, I did work with her husband John at Title Guarantee and Trust in the early sixties. Names from one's past bring up memories of another time. Once again, I am sorry for the family's loss of Ida.

“ Ida was one of my favorite dental patients for many years. I was her dental hygienist. Ida was the sweetest most caring person. She always came to the office neatly dressed, and often had her short mink jacket on in the winter. She always inquired about my mother, who has dementia. I will miss her bright smile, and the lovely holiday cards that she sent to me. Rest in peace Ida. Mary
