“ Our hearts were saddened by the news of your mothers passing. At the age of 94, she had accomplished so much in her life, raising a great family, her great nursing carrier, and just being such a caring person, so now may she rest in peace!

I enjoyed talking to Aunt Irene at any of the "Clouse" gatherings, as no matter if it was a happy time at a reunion or a sad time at a funeral, she would always say something that would bring a smile on her face and her eyes would almost disappear, like her mother (our grandma) Ida's use to. Those eyes seen so much in her long life time!

God Bless you all,

Ray & Diane Clouse (condolences from all the Firmin & Dorothy Clouse families)
