“ My husband and I met Jim and Jackie on their front porch in June of 2020. We had just arrive from Dixon Illinois to help move our son Ben Whitebread to Baltimore. Ben and Demi weren't home when we got there. Jim and Jackie started up a conversation with us from the porch. They invited us to come sit with them and have a beer! Pretty soon, we were old friends! I remember noticing her flowers in the front yard, so pretty. She also had a pretty flower spinner and she told me she got it at the Dollar store. She was very specific about which dollar store, but I don't remember which one! It was a chance meeting, that will always stay with us. They both made an imprint in our hearts! “ Jackie was such a sweet neighbor of mine back in Toledo. I was sad to hear from Jim on her passing. All the best to you, Jim, moving forward. I appreciate our friendship.
