“ Jim was always there, to help , to laugh, to enjoy the event. Jim always added to a group and made the day lighter. Determined to do things Jim's way. I enjoyed Jim's company from the first time we met, and will always remember his humor and mostly his laugh. Bonnie, we are so sad for your loss. Recent times have been tough for you and our prayers are with you.
Jimmie , Rest in Peace

“ Uncle Jimmy is a giant in my childhood. His booming voice lives large in my heart and my actions.
So does the love that he shared with his brother, my dad. He helped me grow up because he spoke to me in grown up ways when I was young. Much love to you, Aunt Bonnie, from me and my family. Howie

“ Bonnie and all the Fischer families, please know I send my love and prayers to you all. The Fischer and Bookenberger families were neighbors and lots of fun memories from those years. Jim was always laughing and smiling !! I'm trying to remember a plaque that was on your front door, was it 6 and 20 villa ? LOL, I'm probably wrong, but I do remember that plaque. “ I remember our trip to Toronto with you and Jim to attend that huge outdoor show. I was pressured to go to the top if the CN tower. On the ride up, Jim held me tight and let me hide my face within his hug. I was so glad to get back on the ground!

“ Jim was always a man's man. He knew what tools were for. . .fixing his fence, fixing the bannister leading to the basement, fixing Barb's steps, replacing the bannister that the rescue squad cut off to get me to the ambulance. The list goes on and on. He loved camping. I liked our trips on his pontoon. He enjoyed a whole circle of friends at his campground. He was ell-liked and will be missed. We loved you, Jimbo.
