“ Mr. Piszachala was the best teacher! I was lucky enough to have him in 8th grade for history and it was fantastic. I also remember him taking on any student in the March Madness (basketball) contest which he won hands down. I continued taking him on in March Madness for a number of years but only could win a few times (a candy bar bet) over many many years. I myself have been a teacher for 22 years now in the same school system that Jim taught. When my students ask me who my favorite teacher was growing up his name always was on the top of the list. I will also miss seeing him at estate sales. RIP Mr. Piszachala

“ Please accept the heartfelt prayer and sympathy of the St. Francis de Sales School Community. Beginning this fall, we will remember Jim at our annual Mass for deceased Alumni, Faculty and Staff. It will be celebrated on a Sunday near November 1, All Saints' Day in our school chapel and family will be invited to pray with us. In the meantime, I shall remember Jim in my prayer.

“ We have all wondered where Jim has been for months and missed him. Called many times but no answer. Jim was an absolute treasure chest of knowledge that he shared with all of us. I looked forward to him at our estate sales and Goodwill shopping. RIP Jim.

“ So sad to hear of Jim's passing. Jim was a wonderful part of the Lakeside Chatauqua Antique show and community for over 25 years...all his friends, customers and family of vendors will greatly miss him and his wonderful infectious and genuine smile.
