

Jane Bruss

January 7, 1941 - April 14, 2026

Jane A. Bruss was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, on January 7, 1941, to Richard W. Norton and Grace (Hemsteger) Norton. She was an honor student at Mother of Mercy High School and graduated cum laude from the University of Cincinnati with a B.A. in English.

After graduation, she married Howard George Bruss Jr. They moved to Toledo where she taught English at the University of Toledo while working towards a Master's degree. Jane and Howard raised three children - Karen Bruss Carle, Neil Robert Bruss, and Howard Charles Bruss, in a family life focused on personal values and fun with a home setting that was active and welcoming. Family celebrations, holidays, summer gatherings at the lake, parties with lifelong friends, and time spent with their nine grandchildren filled their years and set the stage for generations to come.

Jane was a happy loving mother, caring sister and sister-in-law, and proud grandmother, and she was known for her kindness, genuine interest in others, and her ability to make everyone feel valued. She enjoyed entertaining, cooking, gardening, the arts, playing golf and tennis, and was a role model for her children and grandchildren. Jane was always guided by optimism, creativity, and a desire to leave things better than she found them.

Jane was active in the field of communications and established a career later in life with the Toledo Public Schools System as Communications Director for several years. Throughout her career she was known for crafting, directing, and producing communications to convey the intended message with clarity and substance.

Jane was active in community service and organizations, including the Salvation Army, Catholic Social Services, the League of Women Voters, the American Association of University Women, and the Advertising Club of Toledo. She was a founding volunteer for the LPGA Jamie Farr Toledo Classic golf tournament. In every role, Jane gave freely of her time, creativity, and heart, especially in support of charitable and community causes.

Jane is survived by her beloved husband, Howard; her children; her nine grandchildren; her brothers, Charles Norton (Kathy) and Michael Norton (Patti); her brothers-in-law, Michael Bruss and Mark Bruss; her sisters-in-law, Jane Bruss Gulotte and Kitsie Bruss (James) Valiton; and her many nieces and nephews.

She peacefully passed away April 14th from complications from Alzheimer's surrounded by her family.

“ My family moved to Old Orchard in the summer of 1973 and I quickly became fast friends with the boy across the street. From age 8 to age 18, I was a fixture at his home, and his parents, Jane and Howard, welcomed me unequivocally. Whether playing at their house, going to movies, staying for dinner, going out to the park, a trip up north to the lake, or countless other activities, Jane and Howard welcomed me into their home and family without reservation. And Jane was truly a second mother to me during that time.

Years later, my mother suffered a stroke, and I spent my weekends back at her home in Old Orchard, cleaning the family home and preparing it for sale. In those years, Jane stopped by regularly to check in on me, and she also made the journey to the nursing home to see my mother, to bring her little gifts, and share some time to brighten her day.

To Howard, Karen, Neil, and Howie – and your families – my deepest condolences go out to you. My heart weeps for your loss. I am so very sad to learn of your loss, of this woman who was so instrumental in my life.

“ I'd like to let Jane's family know that we have been praying for her peaceful repose at our Orthodox Church. On the Orthodox church calendar, Jane died on Bright Tuesday, two days after Pascha, or Orthodox Easter. The whole "Bright Week" is a celebration of Christ's resurrection, so we're constantly singing "Christ is risen from the dead, trampling down death by death, and on those in the tombs bestowing life!"

I'm sorry I won't be able to attend the funeral, but wish you comfort in knowing that Jane lived a beautiful life and has now entered into her rest.

*Love,

“ Aunt Jane was a shining light in my life. She always was so warm and happy, and she was known to tell a great story. I loved her spirit and admired your determination to do the things that mattered to her... especially her dedication to public education. She was a genuine lady who has touched so many people's lives. She will be missed.

“ Jane and I connected through membership in the Junior League of Toledo. Whenever she was in the room everyone smiled! I was always glad to see her. Many years ago, as I recall, we also shared the experience of living in Old Orchard.

“ Jane always had a great upbeat welcoming smile. I never heard her say a discouraging word about any situation or a person. Indeed, a real breath of positive energy. The world is a little lesser place now.
