“ Judy,
Your home was mine throughout college and your family became mine as well. It was such a respite from the dorms. So many good memories. We are now in the Greenville, South Carolina area and it took a while for the news of your Mom's death to reach me. What a wonderful legacy she has left for so many. My condolences to all the Nirschs.##imported-begin##Bev Bertke Newcomer bjnewcomer@gmail.com##imported-end##

“ Dear Judy,
You are in my thoughts and prayers. I remember your Mother so well, and all of the wonderful times at your house throughout high school. Had the joy of knowing her through my mother as she taught with her at St. Pat's. God's blessings to you all.

“ Dear Karen - I remember your Mom so well - she had my brother David in 3rd grade. This lovely photo looks exactly the same as I remember her except her hair was dark. My Mom always said she was a "smart lady and a wonderful teacher." I'm betting she was a great Mom, too. I wish you and everyone in your family a peaceful and smooth transition to life without her.###imported-begin##Molly Wassermann molly_wassermann@yahoo.com###imported-end##
