“ To my Cousins, Aunt Vicki and Uncles:

It is my deepest regret that I could not be with you during this most difficult time. I loved my Aunt Jane and am saddened by her death. However, what gives me strength about her death is I know she is a child of God. She is now in heaven with Jesus in his presence living in the glory land (you can't top that). Aunt Jane is a true Christian and this shined from the inside out, this why people were drawn to her. She always had a calming peace about her and you could feel her genuine love (she always had a smile and a hug for me. Always!). Cousins, Aunt Vicki and Uncles you were so very blessed to have a Mother and Sister so true to her faith. To my cousins; her love will live within your hearts and your minds and always be there. She will never leave you and her memories will live on through you and your children. You know she will be praying to the Lord to strengthen your faith and someday we will meet up with her and my Mom (Mary) again. It took me a life time for me to realize what's important in this life something Aunt Jane and my Mom (Mary) try to tell me and prayed for, but I wasn't ready to listen in my youth; "Faith in Jesus" I finally got the message. My prayers are the same for you.

Ann, Sharon, Tony and Joey some of my fondest memories are playing with you as kids when I stayed at Grandmas in the old North End!

You have my deepest sympathy!

Love your Cousin,

Bernie
