Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid,
you see.

I took His hand when I heard His call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found the peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys--
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss.
Oh, yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I've savored much good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief--
Don't lengthen it with undue grief.

Lift up your hearts, and peace to thee--
God wanted me now; He has set me free!

“ Dear Mason family, Losing someone is a painful experience and something that can leave us feeling empty inside. I give my condelence to the family and friends that knew Jeanne. The Bible is a great source of comfort for times like this. At 1 Corithinas 15:26 it reads, "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." Jehovah God is more powerful than death and he intends to get rid of it forever. Jehovah wants everyone on the earth to live happily under his authority on a paradise earth forever in the near future. All the problems we see and experience today will be a thing of the past as brought out in revelation 21:3,4. Oh how happy we will be to be reunited with our loved ones and enjoy God's creations in a righteous society of other right hearted people who serve God as well.
