“ Dear Robin, Jeff and Amanda,

I am deeply sorry for your loss. Jeff always talked about his family and he loved all of you so much! He had a deep sense of empathy for those who needed help, and he always went the extra mile to do the right thing. I will always remember the great times at GFS when I worked out of the back sales office in Monroe. Jeff brightened the day for all, and he would always make us laugh about everyday life events. He was genuine through and through. I pray God's comfort on your family. He will truly be missed by all.

“ Robin and family. Words of encouragement from Jeff's Mother led me to meet Jeff at the GFS Marketplace Store. Wow!! Such a humble, warm and dynamic individual in a body of spirit and love. I worked with Jeff for many years and it remains my honor to have had such an experience. Jeff will always be a part of GFS and Monroe County history for year to come. May you and yours know Jeff's presence will be missed; but he will always be a wonderful memory in our hearts.

“ I was so shocked when I looked in the obituary page and saw this gentlemen with a familiar smile starring at me. A pain of sadness went through my heart as I realized it was Jeff. We became friends when He managed the Gordon Alexis store. As I frequent shop at the store for my business, I could always count on Jeff to assist me in whatever I needed. Regardless of what time of day you met him, he was always delightful with that special smile. He made you feel welcome and appreciated. When he later moved to the Central location, I made sure to stop in to see him. To know him was to love him. He will be greatly missed. Jeffery fulfill the words of Jesus, "Blessed is the pure in heart for they shall see God". To his family and love ones, I am praying for you strength and deliverance that the Lord will lift the heavy burden and bring you through this hard period. Know that Jesus Loved Him best.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. I worked with Jeff for about 15 years with Gordon Food Service and Jeff was always one of my friends here. He was always smiling, encouraging, laughing. I think he always smiled. He was dedicated to his family (I remember him sharing some moments) and to his work (he was a professional!). I will see you on the other side of this life, Jeff, now that you're in God's kingdom of paradise.

Robin, Jeffrey, and Amanda, I'm still sick to think that we won't see Jeff every day and can only imagine what you're experiencing. The good news though, I'm sure Jeff is in heaven enjoying his parents again. Their gain is our loss. He would have been thrilled by the outpour of love that I've seen in just these 2 days for him. Until we see him again, please know that I am available to talk, hang out, or joke about the silly things Jeff would do to get a rise our smile out of everyone.

I've known Jeff for 23 years while at Gordon Food Service. Working in the same market as Jeff, we confided in each other to help each other get through the day to day struggles or offer suggestions to better our stores. I admired Jeff for his Christian and family values along with his dedication to his job. He was so proud of his kids and their accomplishments. I have always been amazed by the number of people he knew in the community and how he impacted their lives. He always volunteered for church functions or community events. Jeff was all about customer service. He had the "whatever it takes" attitude to take care of them. As a manager, he impacted so many fellow managers and associates in their careers. He always put them first before his own needs. I will miss Jeff. He was truly a good friend. Robin, my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.
