“ Betsy & Family,

A life time ago we traveled to Erie PA on the boy's weekend of playing cards, eating venison burgers and just being guys. We did this for years. Jesse always had a place in my heart as a wonderful guy. We had so much fun at the Dugout and always enjoyed seeing each other. No one I know or knew then didn't like him. He was always a constant rock for a group of friends who had their flaws. Jesse was our conscience and always loved to laugh at our corny jokes and pranks.

I moved to Columbus 25 years ago and we lost touch...as life went on, I often thought of those "Famous" weekends in PA and all the laughs we had. Betsy, we had laughs as well. I know he loved you greatly.

I know our Lord has wrapped his arms around him and taken him home...He will comfort you as well.

Big Hugs from Columbus!
