“ Teri, Mike , and families....

I worked with Jo as well. She was always a 'straight shooter", and you always knew where you stood with her. I liked that. As her patients go....you also knew you were in good hands and that she would do anything and all she could, for you.

So happy to have had our paths cross during your years in nursing.

“ Mike and Teri and families:

I am so very sorry for your loss. She doesn't have to suffer the indignities and pain of her illnesses any more.

We worked together since 1977 and argued every day, and continued right up through last Saturday. She was a great asset to the ED and was admired and liked by everyone.

Jo, it's Thursday, the Mentalist is on at 10p.

“ Mike and Terri and families, so very sorry for your loss. I also worked with Jo for many years, and we had so much fun. I really enjoyed working with your Mom, she was a good nurse, and very compassionate about her work and especially the patients. Now God has a new Angel of Mercy, so, off she goes to continue her passion. Take care,
