“ There are to many memories to recount. Joan & Jack moved right behind us in Cleveland & we became instant friends. We shared our lives, families & so many laughs & good times together. We had a ball. Many "harpy harps" over the back fence. Mike & I will sorely miss Joan as we do Jack. She did have an infectious smile. Prayers to Tricia, Tom, Bob, Betsey & John. Fondly, Mike & Dee

“ Although I never had a chance to meet Joan, I could tell from Trish's stories about her that she was a strong, caring woman who loved deeply and found joy in every aspect of life. I know she will be dearly missed by all who's lives she touched.

May fond memories lift your spirits now... and forever.
