“ So sorry to hear of Joanne's passing, but rejoicing with her in her heavenly freedom! I remember Joanne was always such a sweetheart; so kind and good to me as we ministered at New Hope Church. God be with you as you grieve. May Joanne's memory always be for a blessing.

“ So many flooded memories of this wonderful woman who became my mother-in-law when I was only 22 yrs.old. Embraced by her love, generosity, wit and advice. I treasure all the gatherings thru many wonderful occasions with her. Her whole-being was an aura of pure love. She made you believe in the good things of life, Church, family, friends, sharing and helping in anyway should could. The world was a better place because of her. A candle has been blown-out in her passing, but an eternal one lives on in God's Kingdom. I love you forever, Joanne Adele Speegle!!

“ I will miss you Momma.....you now understand why I liked you so much huh? My home was not like yours...I remember coming to see Jackie on Western Ave. and we had fundancing, and us girls having fun, and Jeff picking on us...I always thought you were a cool mom cause my mom wouldn't have done that,plus we weren't even allowed kids over in the house,,,,,cuz my dad was a drunk then. It was so weird then when I moved on Ogden,right next door to your mom and your sister!

I am happy knowing you are with our Lord.....fly momma fly!!

“ Dear Lori,

I am truly sorry for the loss of your Mom. Having lost my Mom to Alzheimer's I can truly appreciate what you and your family has gone through. No one knows how this horrible disease can affect a family until you have been through it. It truly is "the longest goodbye". Try to remember your Mom how she was before this disease took over and know that she truly is in a better place. I am praying for peace and comfort for you and your family.
