Joe Heineman, 66, passed away unexpectedly in his Perrysburg home Sunday morning, May 25, 2008.

He was born August 22, 1941, in Connersville, IN, to C.W. and Kathryn Heineman. Joe graduated in 1964 from the University of Notre Dame, South Bend, IN.

He moved to the Toledo area in 1964 and worked for more than 30 years with his uncle, Gayle Reece, and cousin, John at the Reece Fluid Power Company.

When Joe wasn't at work he was on the tennis court. For nearly 40 years he played in local leagues, state play-offs, out-of-town tournaments, and Saturday morning matches with "the guys", enjoying wins and losses in men's and mixed doubles competition. He loved the community of tennis as much as he loved the game. Most of his closest friends were made through tennis. He was a member of Toledo Tennis Club.
