“ To everyone that came to pay their respects and to those that have posted their sympathies at this site, we thank you on behalf of Joe Limon and his entire family.
"Daddy Joe" was an Angel on earth, he raised many of us girls, he loved Mama Rafa and his family dearly. He was kind to everyone, and gave a helping hand whenever he could. He truly was a WWII hero by serving his country, he quietly hung onto his medals as remembrance of his 3 yrs served. We love you Daddy, and will miss you dearly, until we see you again someday!

“ In the 1960s, I was a college student working summers as a section hand for the Toledo Terminal Railroad. Joe was my boss on that section crew. He was always fair to me and very nice to me. I have never forgotten that.
RIP Joe.
