“ I am Scott Gill. Son of Duke's great working friend, Clair Gill. Duke and dad worked as a team (with Bill Fish who passed last month). They enjoyed socializing often with each other and their spouses. Duke helped me out often with electrical issues in the last ten years after my father passed. We had the pleasure of getting together to play guitars and enjoyed a night out with our gals. The last phone conversation I had with Duke (2 months ago) was when he asked me to give him guitar lessons. Unfortunately, living in Arizona was too far a distance. I will always remember babysitting his sons. Duke was a fine man. I will miss him. With respect from afar.
