“ Teri (Marsha & John), it was sad to learn that your father had passed away. The memory that I have of your father was when we went to Wilson Park (for some reason) (of course, we were younger & riding our bikes). A thunder storm erupted and we took cover underneath a big tree. Your father drove up and told us "NEVER" to stand underneath a tree during a thunderstorm because it the first place lightning will strike.

My sincere sympathy to you and the rest of your family.
