“ John and I had our ups and downs but at the end of the day I thank God for him he was an angel in disguise I mean saved my life in the time that I needed him to do that or I wouldn't be here right now today

“ Its still unbelievable that both Deb and John are gone. Deb was such a crazy fun person. She called me her sister because we were born just a day apart. She called my parents, Orville and Donna Small, ma and dad. They always enjoyed that. John was always such a quiet, kind man. I remember a time when during the off camping season we'd get together at each other's home once a month just so we could stay in touch. That was before facebook. Facebook is nice to keep in touch with people, but in person is so much better. I will miss them much. This is a wonderful picture of John. It shows the kindness he had in his heart. The fb picture of Debbie is full of the orneriness she was full of. Hugs, and love to you all.

“ Dad we share many memories. To many to list. With every tear and every smile there is a memory remembered. After taking you to the ER, sitting in the hospital with you I prayed so hard for you to recover. Now you can be at peace. I will miss you. ❤️
