years. For more than 20 years Millie sang in the Toledo Opera chorus loving the excitement of the music and productions. She volunteered for Hospice of Northwest Ohio and enjoyed the education sessions. She also had a keen interest in Interior decorating and was teased by her children for the number of times she moved furniture to redecorate her house. She always had a great sense of style and good taste

Millie was strong in her Catholic faith and she was always with a dog or two around the house. In lieu of flowers, the family is requesting a donation to St. John the XXIII or to a dog rescue agency.

“ Kurt, Judy and Family,

My sincere sympathy on the death of your dear Mom. I was always glad to see her at Sunset House when I visited. A woman who loved her faith and her family. May she now enjoy eternal life.
