

Josie Langsdorf

July 12, 1972 - February 17, 2014

Josie Gonzales Langsdorf, 41, died peacefully on February 17, 2014 surrounded by her family and friends after a valiant battle with lung cancer, even though she was a lifelong non-smoker. She was born in Toledo, Ohio on July 12, 1972 to Junior “Manuel” and Melody Gonzales. Josie graduated from Waite High School in 1990 and worked for NAMSA and Honeywell before she became a stay at home Mom, a job she loved. Josie had a passion for scrapbooking, reality TV shows and the Ohio State Buckeyes. She was proud of growing up on the East Side of Toledo.

Josie loved people, and lived her life to the fullest. Her smile lit up the room. During her fight with cancer, Josie filled many of her bucket list wishes, including meeting reality TV star Scott Disick from Keeping Up With The Kardashians. This was made possible with the help of the Anthony Wayne community.

Surviving are her daughters Ashley and Allison “lil dog” Langsdorf, her parents, her brother Manuel “Goozer” and her sister Angie “DeeDee” Gonzales; special niece Olivia and brother-in-law Greg Langsdorf, special friend Kari Meyers and special aunt Gloria Rodriguez who cared for Josie. She is also survived by the father of her daughters, Brian J. Langsdorf. She was preceded in death by her grandparents and her special canine companion Simon.

Friends and family may visit at Coyle Funeral Home, 1770 S. Reynolds Rd. on Friday, February 21 from 12-8 p.m. The funeral will begin at Coyle at 11:00 on Saturday, February 22, followed by the mass at Gesu Church at 12 p.m. Interment will be at Resurrection cemetery. Those wishing to make a donation in Josie's memory may contribute to Gesu Catholic Church. Please view Josie's memorial video tribute and leave a sympathy message at CoyleFuneralHome.com. The family wishes to thank the thousands of friends and Facebook fans, too numerous to mention, for all their kind words and prayers. A special thanks to Dr. Fugazzi and his staff, and Dr. Vijendra who cared for Josie during her cancer journey. Josie was an inspiration to all that met her. She will be sadly missed.

I must say, I also watched the episode and have seen it many occasion and never thought to see how she was. So sad to see what appeared to be such a beautiful, kind and loving woman had passed from a horrific disease. I am just filled with joy though that she was able to nearly complete her bucket list and was touched to see that Scott Disick was kind enough to help in achieving that wish!! It really makes you want to think about what you would want to accomplish in life and work on it now before it would be to late and truly make every day remarkable. I have a heart felt feeling though that this wonderful soul, Josie, filled every wish she could want just by having her family and the love of so many till the very end. Peace and Love to Josie's family and her beautiful soul!! God bless! ♥

“ To the Family.

I am sorry for the lost of your family member and dear friend. I have an encouraging message that I would like to share with you from God's Word the Bible.

Like many people we all want to live and enjoy life with the ones we have lost to this aged-old-enemy death. Sadly, though because of health issues, injustice, crimes and old age we have to suffer the pain when ones fall asleep in death.

In the Bible at John 5:28,29 Christ Jesus states that all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out. These ones according to Psalm 37:11 will be resurrected right here on the earth.

The Bible also gives us comfort and hope at Revelation 21:3-5 which assures us that the day is soon to come in which our Heavenly Father is going to wipe away the tears of sorrow from our eyes forever and death will be no more.

I hope that after reading this that it will be of comfort to each of you.

To learn more as to why we die and what hope for our loved ones, please feel free to go to the website: jw.org.

Lunch while the kids were at preschool and the great parties she was generous enough to invite us to. The last party we were supposed to attend we missed...I fell on our steps and broke my arm on the way out the door to her house! I will forever have the memories of her smile and positive attitude and a plate in my arm to remember her by :) I know she is thrilled to see Simon again and those loved ones she had lost. “ (News Article) Josie Gonzales Langsdorf of Monclova Township, who shared her battle with lung cancer on a reality television show, died Monday in Hospice of Northwest Ohio, Perrysburg Township. She was 41.

Ms. Langsdorf, who had never smoked, was diagnosed in 2010, and responded by creating a "bucket list" of things to do.

Among the more serious items was an unconventional wish: Meeting Scott Disick, a star of E! network's Keeping Up With The Kardashians. That was checked off thanks to a social media campaign launched by her oldest daughter Ashley Langsdorf.

Legions of Twitter users helped persuade Mr. Disick to visit her, which he did in January, 2013, and Ms. Langsdorf's resiliency became an inspirational plotline in a June episode.

The bucket-list request wasn't about celebrity; it was a way to kick cancer.

In an interview last year, Ms. Langsdorf shared her approach to fighting cancer: "I always said I would live my life to the fullest."

Wallowing was not her style. "She was pretty much a symbol of hope to everyone," her daughter Ashley said. "She was just a tough lady. She just had a crazy will for life."

That meant packing in adventures with family, friends, and her daughters Ashley and Allison.

In a card to her mother, Melody Gonzales, Ms. Langsdorf made a heart wrenching plea. "She said, 'Mom, please take care of my girls and make sure they never forget me.' Of course they'll never forget her," her mother said.

A few weeks ago, Mr. Disick learned of her deteriorating health, and they spoke on the phone.

A 1990 graduate of Waite High School, she had been employed at NAMSA and Honeywell.

Surviving are her daughters, Ashley and Allison; parents, Junior "Manuel" and Melody Gonzales; brother, Manuel "Goozer" Gonzales, and sister, Angie "Dee Dee" Gonzales.

Visitation is noon to 8 p.m. Friday in Coyle Funeral Home. The funeral Mass is noon Saturday in Gesu Church. The family suggests tributes to the church.

“ Josie fought the good fight! Those of us who knew Josie will always remember her warmth, humor and who could EVER forget that smile. I see her tenderly held in the arms of Jesus like a little lamb - no more suffering and no more pain, but that beautiful smile. Jesus watch over Josie's girls, may they encounter her spirit throughout their lives and know she lives on within them.

On another note - I live across the street and I was always amazed at how many cars were parked on the street for one of her many parties. I thought of how lucky these people are to have found each other and have such good times! Sooo many friends, family and such a tribute to this special lady.

“ I chose a poem that is Special to me to share with all of Josie's Family & Friend's. I hope this will deliver comfort and peace all of you. She was Loved by so many <3

A Letter From Heaven - Ruth Ann Mahaffey

To my dearest family, some things I'd like to say.

But first of all, to let you know, that I arrived okay.

I'm writing this from heaven.

Here I dwell with God above.

Here, there's no more tears of sadness;

Here is just eternal love.

Please do not be unhappy just because I'm out of sight.

Remember that I am with you every morning, noon and night.

That day I had to leave you when my life on earth was through.

God picked me up and hugged me and He said, I welcome you.

It's good to have you back again, you were missed while you were gone.

As for your dearest family, they'll be here later on.

I need you here so badly, you are part of my plan.

There is so much that we can do, to help our mortal man.

God gave me a list of things, that he wished for me to do.

And foremost on the list, was to watch and care for you.

And when you lie in bed at night the day's chores put to flight.

God and I are closest to you....in the middle of the night.

When you think of my life on earth, and all those loving years.

Because you are only human, they are bound to bring you tears.

But do not be afraid to cry; it does relieve the pain.

Remember there would be no flowers, unless there was some rain.

I wish that I could tell you all that God has planned.

If I were to tell you, you would don't understand.

But one thing is for certain, though my life on earth is over.

I'm closer to you now, than I ever was before.

There are rocky roads ahead of you and many hills to climb;

But together we can do it by taking one day at a time.

It was always my philosophy and I'd like it for you too;

That as you give unto the world, the world will give to you.

*If you can help somebody who is in sorrow and pain;
Then you can say to God at night....My day was not in vain.
And now I am contented... that my life was worthwhile.
Knowing as I passed along the way I made somebody smile.
So if you meet somebody who is sad and feeling low;
Just lend a hand to pick them up, as on your way you go.
When you're walking down the street and you've got me on your mind;
I'm walking in your footsteps only half a step behind.

MONCLOVA TOWNSHIP, OH (Toledo News Now) – A Monclova Township woman's family is using social media to help her cross an item off her bucket list.

Josie Langsdorf, 40, was diagnosed with lung cancer two and a half years ago. Since then, she's had multiple surgeries to remove tumors and her entire left lung, but the cancer is spreading. So she adopted a goal to live life to the fullest – for herself and her family. One night, while watching television with her daughter Ashley, Langsdorf saw Scott Disick.

"My mom was like, 'Oh my God! I would just love to hang out with Scott!'" Ashley explained.

So the pair got on Twitter, a site Langsdorf was previously unfamiliar with, and got to work. One tweet turned into thousands of re-tweets by locals and even celebrities, morning show anchors, and athletes. The "JosiesBucketList" hashtag got so big, Langsdorf herself joined Twitter.

She said she has more serious things on her bucket list, but she thinks she and Disick would get along great. She doesn't know if she'll actually get to meet him, and if she doesn't, she's okay with it, but she said the journey to this point has been amazing.

"I know in my heart it's not long," she said. "But I'm just going to keep on going until I can't any longer...If this doesn't even happen, that doesn't even matter at this point, because of all of this. It really means a lot."

My daughter's friend and she will be missed terribly. I heard the sorrow in my daughter's voice when she said that Josie had gone home. I hope the family will take consolation in the fact that Josie is home with Our Lord and not in pain. I know she will be missed.
