“ John, I am sorry physical limitations make impossible to extend my sympathy to you personally at this time in your life. While I did not know your wife Judy, the fact she chose you to spend her life with tells me all about her. Having lost my own wife 11 years ago, I know from personal experience that no words from anyone can lift your spirit at this time. But rest assured that others are praying that the Lord will help you get through your loss in time. My personal expression of sympathy is all I have to offer...Max Gerber, Sylvania.

“ I met Judy through Interconnection about thirty years ago. We spent a lot of time together working on various projects. She always had a smile and could be counted on to do anything that was asked of her. She was also instrumental in helping my daughter find her first job in the elder care field. Our loss is God's gain. Safe travels, Judy.

“ Dear Old Friend Schneid,
50 years have passed faster than we could know. I watched you fall in love with Judy and then stay in love with Judy. Seldom do two really good and special find each other and seal the deal like you two did. We admire the courage that both of you exhibited dealing with a challenge undeserved. I knew that you were a tough old Cowboy, but you excelled in a very tough game that lasted for years. We admire you. Our sincere sympathy to you and your family. Hold on to the best memories.
