She is also survived by her sisters and brothers Sharon Pinkelman, Corwin (Jane) Dominique, Dan Dominique, Jean (Dave) Dunbar, Mark (Kathy) Dominique, Jackie (Steve) Weiler, Joe (Katrinka) Dominique, Dale (Cheryl) Dominique, and Luke (Suann) Dominique. “ I am so sad to hear of such a beautiful girl leaving our Earthly life at such a young age. Judy is now blessing everyone in Heaven with her warm heart, her amazing smile and bubbly personality. When I was home last in February of 2023, I was getting my mom ready to fly back to Nevada, lucky to be spending time at Aunt Sharon's; a place we all love to be surrounded by kids, fun, laughter, card games, swimming and just being around loving family.

I was standing in the recreation room talking to Brittany and her bo when I heard the front door open and in walked Mike and Judy, and wow, I looked at them and they had the biggest brightest orah around them, I joyfully hollered "Hi!" I felt so blessed to see them, we hugged, said hi, told some jokes of course, laughed and I remember what joy I felt in seeing them, a memory I will cherish forever. I have always thought Judy had the cutest face ever and I will always remember her face eyes and smile and cheerful way. God Bless you all in this delicate time.

“ Dear Mike and Brittany and all the families of our beloved Judy, She was joy! She was happy to see you; she treated you as a longtime friend the moment you met her, and she enjoyed all the moments of life, big and small. Mike, you and Judy were a perfect pair; she was your soulmate. You have this unbelievable faith that I've never seen in any other man, and I hope that it helps you through this. And Brittany, she was the best mom ever . . . and she told me she couldn't ask for a more precious daughter. You know you are in my thoughts and prayers, and especially my heart. God has already welcomed his faithful servant home, may you feel his loving presence through these most difficult days.

Dave*
