“ So sad to hear about Aunt Kathy. Growing up, she was a second mom to me, I remember camping at Pokagon and having such a good time! Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with all of you. Jennifer

“ This is Debbie Gembolis...we lived across the street from you for many years and many years ago on Evansdale. So sorry for your family's loss. I worked under Kathy selling Tupperware for awhile. We became good friends. My husband Don (passed away in January, 2017 from Melanoma very suddenly) knew Fred and Scott very well. Sending hugs, thoughts and prayers to all of you at this so sad time.

I also apologize...I would come to the visitation except I am out of town babysitting my granddaughters. 💕
