“ Oh Mom, how hard it is to lose you, I still can't believe you are gone...This all happened so fast, yet you suffered so much for almost a month. I know you didn't want to go, but it wasn't meant to be...Please know how much I love you and I thank God for the gift of having you as my Mother...It is so hard to believe you and Dad are now gone, you are no longer in pain and that is where I find my comfort, save a place for me.....

“ My Grandmother, Godmother & Bestfriend, you will forever hold a special place in my heart. You always told me that "you came in with a bang, and that you'd surely go out with one." I believe it's safe to say that you were right, and God was really finally ready for you. I still come home anticipating you sitting on the porch, watching the birds. I love you more than I could ever truly explain. It comforts me knowing that your finally back with Grandpa, the love of your life and your best friend Maureen. Pino misses you like crazy. Thank you for everything you've done for me, I am so grateful for having you in my life. I love you and you will always and forever be, my bestfriend. Love, your protege.###imported-begin###Ashley Nicole vbstr06@yahoo.com###imported-end##

“ Mary, Jim and Mary and family,

Know my thoughts and prayers are especially with all of you. It is so hard to lose a parent... Your mom is unforgettable and such a character...everyone remembers her...she brought a lot of joy and fun into our lives....and to our animals....well...a lot of food, love and care for them. We know who got spoiled! I hope that you can experience the consolation that she was well loved and she is with your dad and her friend and cousin Maureen. The Irish are having a heyday now! (and there must be a garage sale somewhere!)

Love ya....Brenda###imported-begin###Brenda Hendricks###imported-end##
