“ My boopie!!! My heart is broken because I have been looking for you for so long! And on this day I have just found out about your passing. We shared so many great times together! You were really nice to me when I first came to TSA. You always had a smile on your face and always spoke so positively. Even after we both no longer went to TSA we found each other again at Rogers and for a long while we were inseparable. I love you so much! More than you probably could have ever imagined you were always there for me always putting a smile on my face and you never sweated the small stuff. I can't stop crying because all the hope and faith I had in finding you and embracing each other with our sister hugs I feel has been stolen away and there's nothing I can do about it. I don't know where I stood with you as far as our friendship went but you have always been one of my BEST friends that I ever had. You were always honest very loyal trustworthy and dependable and even though you've been gone for awhile now I am just now grieving But all I do know is that Jesus has gained an angel. A magnificent angel who is never easily broken. And always prepared to fight for what's right. I pray for your babies. Gabby was always so pretty and smart just like her mama. I never got a chance to meet Joshua but hopefully one day I will have the chance to seem them and tell them how wonderful of a person you were how strong you were and how you didn't let life bring you down. I love you always and you will be forever missed.

If anyone sees this and can get in touch with her family please give them my email address I would love to see my god daughter and her Lil brother

“ Gabreilla & Joshua, My heart goes out to you both and I know you will always miss your mommy. I want you to know how much your mommy loved you and how proud she was to be your mommy. Always remember that she will be in your heart, and will always be one of the angels in heaven watching over you. Jesus is taking care of your mommy now and will make sure that both of you are taken care of. Love Aunt Kimmy###imported-begin###Aunt Kimmy chiefkim2003@aol.com###imported-end##

I can't believe she's gone either. I miss her and I wish this hadn't had happened. I'm her daughter Gabriella and I'm 12 now. I wish she could have raised me and watched me grow up.

“ Sweet girl I will miss you.. You were just like my little sister.. I remember you dancing at my wedding in your pink dress and pink shoes.. Your hand getting stuck in the van door when I slammed it and your fingers just wiggling away.. I am so sorry we did not get to meet up when I moved back home.. I love you very much and James says he loves you too.. Keep an eye on your babies from up above..
