“ I'm just finding out about Ken's passing. Sue and all the Adams family, so sorry for your loss. Ken was always quick to greet everyone with a kind smile and a hug. He just seemed to be a mellow soul. Thanks for your kindness Ken, you'll be missed. Veronica Fischer, life long friend of Sue.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. have known Ken most of my life.He lived 2 houses from my grandparents on Walbridge and we used to play together when I would visit them. Later we reconnected at Libbey High in 1963 through 1966. We reconnected on Facebook a few years ago. I remember that he was tall and thin and had the nickname of Spider. My prayers go out to his family.

“ Kenny has always called me "Doll" as long as I can remember. Gonna miss that. Big on hugs, and a heart just as big!! It was great seeing him again the last time he was in WV. Knew it would be his last time to come visit though. Took him out to eat as our usual thing, and had a great time. And when he left....we said our final goodbyes. See you on the other side Kenny! May God give you His peace.
