“ Ken loved the desert and took many pictures of all the cacti. The desert is starting to bloom now and I hope he can look down and see the beautiful flowers. He loved Az. and had many friends here and is dearly missed by everyone and especially me. I will miss him whenever I golf; I will think about him every swing, as he was my personal instructor. We had a wonderful four years together and I wish it could have gone on longer. You kids take care and remember the good times. He will greatly be missed.###imported-begin##Snookie###imported-end##

“ My heart goes out to all of you. I'm very very sad to hear of Uncle Ken's death. He was such a great guy with a huge, loving, and generous heart. Wouldn't have survived without his support during Mom and Dad's deaths. He will be greatly missed and may all our fond memories keep him alive in our hearts.

*My very deepest sympathy, thoughts, and prayers with you.
