Larry R. Dargart passed into Eternal Life on November 5, 2019 at Ohio Living Swan Creek where he had lived since July of this year. Previous to that he had lived at Parkcliffe Memory Care Facility since November 2016. He was born to Elvin and Leona (Myer) Dargartz on June 27, 1942. He graduated St. Francis deSales High School in 1960 and Toledo University in 1963. He served in the Army National Guard. They lived in Toledo and Monclova Township. He began working for The Ohio Department of Transportation on November 23, 1963, the day that John Kennedy was shot. He started by inking drawings, inspecting bridges, issuing permits and eventually working up to the position of Deputy Director of Personnel, retiring in 2000. Larry was also a Realtor and Appraiser for many years, having worked for Grogan Real Estate and DiSalle Real Estate. Larry and Nancy loved to travel. They took various cruises and went on pilgrimages to Italy and the Holy Land. The visit to the Holy Land was especially memorable because they were walking where Jesus had once walked.
