

Laura Marsh

April 7, 1941 - November 12, 2025

Laura Louise Marsh, died on November 12, 2025 at her home in Toledo, Ohio. Laura Marsh was born on April 7, 1941 in Toledo, Ohio to Arthur and Ruth Vetter.

She grew up in Custar, Ohio and was part of a family of five. She had two older brothers Bob and George Vetter who were her best friends. She often reminisced many memories of her childhood and life in Wood County.

After high school Laura attended Ohio State University where she obtained a degree in dietetics. She further perused a Masters Degree in Business at Bowling Green State University. She started her career at Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit Michigan. She worked for Toledo Public Schools and Wood County Health department - Women, Infants and Children (WIC) office. However, Laura found what she really enjoyed in life was a small personal business of Physician Recruiter. She liked taking on the difficult tasks of trying to find employment for people who wanted to work but couldn't find positions in the medical field in locations they wanted to be at.

Laura was married forty-one years to James G. Marsh and had a son Ted (Tracy) Marsh. She had four grandchildren Colton, Preston, Tinsley and Michael Marsh.

She lived in Toledo, Ohio most of her life and was a very strong individual who was not afraid to speak her opinions. She enjoyed gardening, quilting, and spending time with family.
