“ I will always remember your smile and the 2 thumbs up to show me that you were ok and didn't need anything else when i was done giving meds or whatever i had been doing in your room. Daddy you meant the world to me i will love you to the moon and back forever. Knowing that you are with mom now and no longer in pain helps me a little bit to move forward without you here. You lay not have always been the daddy i wanted but you were the best one you knew how to be, Rest in peace poppa bear.

“ Condolences to the family:

“In the day of my distress I will call upon you, for you will answer me.” (Psalm 86:7)

During this time remember to turn to GOD for help in prayer. “For all things I have the strength by virtue of him who imparts power to me.” (Philippians 4:13)

May he make you strong, and help you to face each day with courage, peace, and hope.

Too, remember prayer, for it is us talking to God, reading the Bible is him talking back, comforting, reassuring us & answering our questions.

Please accept my sincere sympathy
