Lee F. Madon

December 27, 1924 - March 21, 2008

Lee F. "Dusty" Madon, age 83 passed away peacefully on Friday, March 21, 2008.

Dusty was born to Silas and Neelie (Buell) Madon on December 27, 1924. He loved the USA and proudly served his country in the U.S. Army during WWII. He spent his career as a welder at Riker Manufacturing for 26 years until his retirement. He loved God, his family, country music, cowboys and Indians and cartoons, in that order. Dusty also loved Christmas, with a "Christmas Room" filled with holiday decor year round. His greatest passion was music, he learned to play guitar when he was very young. He played guitar and sung, in clubs and on the radio, for a short time but mostly for pleasure for his family and friends throughout his life.

He was preceded in death by his wife Marie (Lammon); his parents; step-son Gaylord and 13 brothers and sisters. Dusty is survived by and will be greatly missed by his daughter Donna (Gary) Dotson; son Jim (Linda) Madon; his first wife and friend Margie Stapleton; step-son Boris "Butch" Lammon; grandchildren Rhonda (Bob) Wise, JoHanna (Hans) Neugebauer, Lori (Tim) Zimmerman; step-grandchildren Barbara and Dawn, as well as, 10 great-grandchildren.

Friends may visit at the Coyle Funeral Home, 1770 S. Reynolds Rd., on Wednesday from 2-8 p.m. where a Memorial Service will be held at 7:30 p.m. Interment will be held in Middlesboro, KY.
