“ Mom, If I could be half the mother you were to me, then I would be the second best mother in the world. Missing you is painful but I believe we will be together again. Dad, I am so sorry for your loss, especially as you approach 64 years of marriage. I pray for you daily as you go on without Mom, as I cannot imagine how difficult your life is, knowing how much I miss mom. May God Bless you always, and I know Mom is watching over you until we all meet again. My sincerest love.##imported-begin##your daughter##imported-end##

“ Bright pink cheeks and a signature Murphy pink nose, her head tilted over to one side, and giggling over bright, sunny days. That is how I will always remember Aunt Lois. The handful of winters that she, Uncle Ed, and the pup spent a little time on St. Pete Beach have planted her laughter in my memory forever.##imported-begin##Beth Murphy##imported-end##
