“ Lou Ann was nearly 15 when I was born,so she was always my big sister and took the role on as eldest of the siblings.I still remember when she turned 30 and I was only 15. I sent her a birthday card saying how "old" she was. When I turned 30, she asked if I was old now. I said no and neither are you at 45. That was good for a laugh.I was the flower girl in her wedding at the age of 4.I actually had to get really dressed up,something I didn't relish but, I think I did an OK job. I'm glad she was able to visit us in Arizona(picture attached). Lou Ann, you are gone now from the physical world but will always stay in our hearts and in our thoughts. Journey well in your new life, dear beloved sister.
