“ When I was a little girl, Uncle Lou would sit for hours putting together puzzles. I would dance around and play with my Barbie's until he would call me over to help him. I hurried anxiously to the table and put three pieces together right away. He would rant and rave how brilliant I was and it wasn't until I was older that I realized he purposely wouldn't solve the puzzle himself. He wanted me to feel special. He was one of the most vivacious and humble people I will ever have the pleasure of knowing. He will be greatly missed by my entire family.

Thank you Uncle Lou for all the memories.

Pam and Wurm family, My condolences go out to you. Regret I can not be there to say Goodbye. Lou and I became acquainted in the 1950's when he was with Dundee Truck Line and I with Duff, for 36 years. We had many conversations on who was the better traffic person. We shared a lot of golf and watched over 40 years of football Super Bowl games. Wife and daughter also enjoyed Louie's company. He brought venison steaks several times and we took turns furnishing steak on his visits. He enjoyed my wife's cooking. I will remember him as a friend and a good man. Sincerely. Clair Emerson
