

Luken Timothy Boyle

May 9, 2003 - July 31, 2017

Luken was taken from us suddenly, unexpectedly, and tragically too soon on July 31, 2017. To know him was to love him because he loved everyone. Luken would find the lonely person in the room and befriend them. He had an amazingly kind heart and was thankful for simple things.

Luken is survived by his mother, Samantha Boyle, brother, Leyton, and sister, Avery, grandparents, Mike and Teresa Boyle, Uncle Bill Boyle (Jude), cousin Rachel Garza, great-grandpa Bill Boyle, numerous Boyle and Vogl aunts, uncles, and cousins, as well as Grandpa Maynard Marsh and the entire Homer family. He is predeceased by Uncle Tim Boyle, cousin Christofer Jutkowski, and Grandma Darlene.

Luke was the third generation to attend Blessed Sacrament School. He played football, basketball, baseball, was an altar boy, was in the choir and was involved in many other school related activities. He loved to fish anywhere he could and catch frogs on his grandparents' property. He enjoyed being with his neighborhood friends and riding bikes. He was so excited about attending Central Catholic High School and playing for the golf team.

Words cannot express the pain and heartache brought on by one impulsive decision as a result of cyber bullying. Luken will be remembered as the amazing, gentle, soul he was and not by how he left us. Donations may be made to the "Luken T. Boyle Campaign for Kindness", 7303 Salisbury Road, Maumee, OH 43537.

Friends may visit at the Coyle Funeral Home, 1770 S. Reynolds Rd., on

“ I remember seeing him in the halls,ruffling his hair and calling him my shrimp and i used to get mad when other people called him that because it was just my nickname you know? He always spammed my phone with pictures of frogs on his head and i'd always laugh and tell him how goofy he was. I still have a lot of them I had made it my lockscreen and it still is. I know im late but I just wanted to talk about it. He was my best friend and I was the last person he texted i just couldn't see that something was up. I feel so stupid now that i think of it.

As I celebrate my niece's wedding Saturday in another Catholic Church, I will remember Luken, and for you, his family, in special prayer that you indeed feel the presence of the hand of the Lord our God himself guiding you through your journey of grief to the calm of the Peace that, by our Faith, we know that only God can give. Bless you. Bless your new Angel Luken, who no longer feels pain.

“ My heart is broken for your family at the loss of such a wonderful young man. We did not have the benefit of knowing Luken for a long time; our sadness is but a small piece of the loss experienced by those who have known and loved him throughout his life.

My son (Jacob) is a year older than Luken and played football with him on the West Toledo Saints team. I remember them standing together on the sidelines and throwing the football around after practice, while everyone waited for a ride home.

When I hear that Luken was going to attend Central Catholic and play on the golf team, I can only imagine the dreams and experiences that were awaiting him at his new school "home". My son would certainly have welcomed him, as he is in his second year there. His older brother also played on the golf team at Central for four years. Your loss is a reminder of how precious life is and how fortunate we are to have so many memories of good times with our loved ones.

While, as a mom, I know there is nothing I can say to lessen your grief, I just want to pass on the love of others whose lives Luken has touched, if even in a seemingly small way.

Please know that we have been praying for Luken and for your family, and will lift him up with our intentions in the rosary.

“ There are no words that can ease the terrible ache in your hearts. There is nothing anyone can do that can fill the void. Please know that all of you are in our prayers and in our thoughts and we ask God to wrap His loving arms around Luke and let him feel all the love that family and friends will always have for him. We are so sorry.
