“ Dear Jay:

I am so sorry to hear of your mother's passing. My sister passed away this summer and I know the pain of losing one you love so much. Please know that she is okay now and there is no more pain for her. She is watching over you and is with God and happy. I know you are missing her but the day will come when you will be with her again. If there is anything you need, or just need to share, please let me know.

“ Karen and Phil,

We are saddened to here that Marcie has left this earthly home, yet we know that she longed to be with Vic in heaven. She endured a great loss when your father passed. May you all remember the special times that were shared together as a family. We look forward to our heavenly reunion with both your parents. Friends of your parents through our father, Bud Richard.

“ My heart goes out to Marcie's family. I met her when I was 5 years old, over 15 years ago. She worked with my mother at the library in Addison Middle School. Losing someone is never easy. What gets you by is when, with out a doubt, you know they are in heaven, reuniting with those love ones that are dear to their heart. Marcie is enjoying the absolute perfection of Heaven and out Lord, Jesus. This is not a final goodbye, this is an "I'll see you when our time here is through." I pray for you all. God bless, celebrate her life.##imported-begin##Kelsey Grove Heinz heinzwedding@gmail.com##imported-end##

“ I have many, many fond memories of working with Marcie at the Addison Middle School Library. She donated hundreds of hours of her time and she was surrogate grandma to many of the children. The world is a better place because of Marcie Baumann and I am very blessed to have known her. I look forward to seeing her again some day.##imported-begin##Sherry Grove##imported-end##
