“ Our deepest condolences to the Galeano and Gaynor families in the passing of Marcia, whom we did not know personally but did pray for during this past year, as we learned of her suffering and health complications. Please accept our thoughts and prayers during this sad time and let the cherished memories of happier moments soothe your pain. “ I was so very saddened to hear of the passing of my very dear friend Marcia. Her and I worked together for a few years at the alarm company. I will never forget her generosity, kindness, and her advice to me when I vented my problems. Marcia always talked with so much pride about her grand kids and kids to me. We worked many long 3rd shift nights talking about everything and anything. I was so blessed to have known Marcia in my life time. I will miss her, as I have for so many years since she moved to Texas and we lost touch. My thoughts and prayers are with her family. Miss you Marsh!###imported-begin##Teresa Bryant & Family###imported-end##

“ Trent and Karen-

*I was your next door neighbor on Winterset Drive. I just read about your Mother's passing and was so shocked. I am terribly sorry for your loss. I know how proud she was of you two. Remember how much she loved you. Stay good. Blessings--Helen "Jo"###imported-begin###Helen Bish Wagoner

“ To my cousins and Marcia's children and grandchildren...

My prayers and deep condolences.

Although I didn't see much of Marcia as an adult, I have wonderful memories of her and spending overnights and Christmas with my "Gaynor cousins".

She will be missed.

*Love, your cousin Pat Holt###imported-begin###Pat (Holtgrieve) Holt i
