“ To the family of Marge Gow,
My sincere sympathies to you on the death of Marge. Not only did I know Marge from her days at Little Flower, she was an "across the street" neighbor to my in-laws, Walter and Virginia Boratyn. After my father-in-law died, we appreciated her care and concern for Virg. She always told us that if my mother-in-law's drapes were not opened by a certain time, she would call and check on her. You have no idea how comforting that was to us. Our prayers continue to go out to all of you.

“ I have fond memories of Mrs. Gow at Little Flower. I was fortunate enough to have her as my home room teacher in both third and fifth grades. Teachers tend to touch a lot of lives. She touched mine and a lot of others' in the very best of ways. Rest in peace Mrs. Gow!

Marge and I taught at Little Flower in the '80's. She was a very good friend, neighbor, teacher of my children and fun loving colleague. She truly cared about her students, her family and friends.

“ My thoughts and prayers for the family and friends of Mrs. Gow. She was always a wonderful teacher (gr. 3) and she had a kind heart. I grew up in the same neighborhood where Mrs. Gow lived and my older brothers knew Dean. To this day, when I drive through the old neighborhood I look for her house and think of her. Rest in Peace .

“ Mrs. Gow was my second grade teacher at Little Flower. I will be 50 this year. I just remember how sweet she was to me when she found out that I was a new student from out of town. She always kept her eye on me. She was a super sweet lady. My prayers go out to her and her family.

“ Ah, Mrs. Gow! She was like no other. My absolute favorite teacher in 5th grade. I will never forget her love for Snuggles the bear and my grandfather let me buy one to give her as a gift. God Bless her soul and may you all find peace and comfort knowing that she was so impressionable to so many young lives that are now grown adults with their own families and yet remember her fondly.

“Katie, Mandy, Dean, Peggy, Tana, Zachary, and the rest of the family... My heart breaks for you all. I have so many memories of her throughout life, but what sticks in my mind most is her infectious smile and laugh, even when sometimes it was a sarcastic smirk with an eye roll at the kitchen table. Dylan wanted me to share that he remembers taking her to doctor's appointments and her giving him sugar cubes for being good. I pray for your peace and comfort in knowing that Grandmama is happy and healthy in heaven. Love to you all.
