Ten children, thirty-six grandchildren and one great-grandchild were the fruits of their love and devotion to each other. Peggy was a member of St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Sylvania, Ohio.

“ To the Wheelers.

What a family. Strong, Together, Fiesty, Hysterical, Generous, and living life sharing love and fun in every moment. All traits of your mother and grandmother. It's simply amazing what she built and then what you carry on through each generation. I'm in awe.

Wish that we could be there to celebrate Aunt Peggy and the Wheeler family.

“ Mrs. Wheeler, as I knew her, was a wonderful person. One my earliest memories of her is my first time, of many, that I got to enjoy dinner with the family. She went out of her way to allow me to have milk with dinner while everyone else had water. She always went out of her way to make you feel welcome.
My deepest sympathies.

“ To me, "Aunt Peggy" was one fun and feisty lady - which I found out living across the street from many of you for years on Inverdale. I have many fun and funny memories - one that involves your blue station wagon rolling down your driveway and into our yard because she forgot to engage the parking brake.
I am sorry to miss the Memorial Mass, as I have classes to teach at Terra. My thoughts and prayers are with you - and a big HI to any of you older Wheelers who remember the Bertkes.##imported-begin##Barb Bertke Holdcroft bholdcroft01@terra.edu##imported-end##

“ Dear Wheeler Cousins, Your mother had a remarkable presence. I can see her directing the work crew in the kitchen the summer I visited. I remember her smile, her clear eyes, and her voice calling me "Meggy." I can picture my mother spilling over with constant laughter as she talked to Aunt Peg on the phone. We love her and are saddened by your loss. Meg##imported-begin##Meg Kane Lee meglee3@yahoo.com##imported-end##

“ God, we loved you Aunt Peg! You were the shiny gem of the Schoen family. Albeit youngest and smallest, your aura was mightiest! Thank you for all the great memories at the Wheeler house. Trying to catch the tiniest peek at the nuns swimming. And having a life guard for each mentally handicapped swimmer, and then a life guard for each life guard cause the kids didn't know their strength in play. The treading water contests.....was that martini time? It was always like a vacation coming to your house. My condolences to all the Wheeler families and ourselves. We lost a great one.##imported-begin##Sheila Flanagan smithflanagan@hotmail.com##imported-end##
