“ My sympathy and prayers to Marge’s family. I was the accompanist for the Regina Coeli Choir when Rosemary O’Brien was the director. Marge was a valued member for her voice and her extraordinary talent for writing four-part arrangements to hymns for the choir to sing at Mass. She gifted me with a beautiful afghan pattern that I cherish to this day! Memories are our gift from God and your memories will comfort you in the says ahead. Dear Marge, I pray you rest securely in the arms of God. Love, Kay Bahna
