

Margaret "Peggy" C. Tasnadi

November 25, 1958 - September 18, 2025

Peggy Tasnadi, age 66 of Perrysburg, Ohio, passed away unexpectedly Thursday, September 18, 2025 while with her beloved husband, John Tasnadi. Peggy was born on November 25, 1958 to Richard and Patricia Greene in Toledo, Ohio. She graduated from the University of Toledo College of Education with both a bachelor's and a master's degree in education. These educational achievements, and all educational endeavors, were a source of pride and admiration for Peggy, which inspired her children to pursue their own advanced degrees. Peggy was a teacher for 28 years prior to her retirement, with most of those years being spent with Maumee City Schools. Peggy primarily taught early elementary levels, and she had a special fondness for her years teaching kindergarten. The advent of the "smart board" and other technological teaching advances were Peggy's sworn enemies as she approached retirement.

Children were the one constant that brought joy to Peggy's life. She touched the lives of hundreds of students and student teachers that she instructed over the course of her twenty-eight years of teaching. Nearly every time Peggy went out in public with her family she would be approached by an adoring former student. She purported to have almost fainted the first time a new student exclaimed "you taught my mom!"

Most recently, Peggy's grandchildren had her heart. First, her grandchildren through John, Olivia, Heather, and Natalie, and, then, her son's children, Jack and Summer. Peggy sought any and every opportunity to spend time with her grandchildren. She once took a red eye flight during COVID to care for her very contagious grandson as he healed from hand foot and mouth disease. Gift giving was Peggy's love language for her grandchildren, much to their parents' dismay. Holidays and birthdays necessitated dozens of trips to the car to retrieve whatever had not already been sent through amazon. Her grandchildren enjoyed receiving books from her the most, because they were always accompanied by 1-1 reading time with grandma.

Peggy is survived by her loving husband John, her daughter Mary (Ryan) Fenner, son Danny (Susie) Iten, step-daughter Megan Ren (Lining); brother Richard Greene Jr. (Natalie); and grandchildren, Summer, Jack, Olivia, Heather, and Natalie. She was preceded in death by her first husband, Don Iten, and her parents, Richard and Patricia Greene.

“ I have a lot of fond memories with Peggy at the University of Toledo. She was such a sweet person. I remember all our times riding in my Firebird, going to concerts, plays and whatever. I know your family will miss you. I hope to see you in heaven in the future. Rest in peace. May God comfort her children and family and may they remember all the good times together. “ I have a lifetime of memories with Peggy. From playing Monopoly in her basement as kids, teaching together, raising children together (great summers at the pool, Devils Lake and Clark Lake), to traveling in several European countries, we spent time together as friends, not just cousins. I will always miss you. Thanks for the love and memories.

“ Peggy and I were in college at the same time - both majoring in education. After graduation, I was surprised to find that we were in the same apartment complex and both teaching in the same school system. We ended up living in the same town, not far from one another, and our kids were friends in the same graduation class. Because I was a secondary teacher and Peggy an elementary teacher, our paths did not cross much until we were in the same building teaching right down the hall from one another. Peggy was spunky and kind; I enjoyed her company. I simply cannot believe she is gone. I am sure she will be greatly missed by her family and friends. Sue (Lyons) Hamann

“ When we were Freshmen at UT, we met while shelving books at the Carlson library. Peggy and I took Education classes together, taught Kindergarten simultaneously, got married and moved less than a block away from each other and continued our friendship for 48 years. The memories I have shared with Peg will never be forgotten. Rest in peace dear friend and know that you have left a footprint on my heart.
