Mary, you were a wonderful wife to my brother Freddie and together you two blessed this world with Frieda, the most adorable niece and my awesome nephews Freddie, Joseph and Francisco Gonzales. The years you guys were in Hobbs I will never forget. Especially Saturday mornings when we all lived together still and we'd clean house. Man it's a miracle we didn't die from fumes mixing pin sol and bleach! Thanks for the memories sister. Say hello to everyone in heaven and hopefully someday we will see each other again
