“ Grandma came to Toledo around 1953 and single-handedly worked her way out of poverty, sometimes working two jobs day to night, seven days a week with very little sleep. She did manage to enjoy the second half of her life, taking trips to Myrtle Beach and Florida, becoming a home owner, and raising her kids, grandkids, and great grandkids as best as she could, Grandma is THE most unselfish person I have ever known and I love and miss her and will never let a day go by without thinking about her.
